SYDENHAM METHODIST CHURCH

Sunday 10 May 2015

advance*notices

The next Men's Breakfast will be on Saturday 23 May @ 9:00am in the CFC restaurant Strandtown

A very very advance notice..... Date for your diary....Volunteers night on Tuesday 9 June @ 7.30pm in Dock Cafe. This is a way of saying 'Thank you' to anyone who is a volunteer in any capacity in Sydenham Methodist.

The Leprosy Mission is so very grateful for the continuing support we give them by forwarding the used stamps. As it is near holiday time, please also remember that any unwanted foreign coins will also help their funds, together with empty printer ink cartridges. These may also be left in the box on the table in the vestibule. Thank you to all who support this work.

Storehouse – Please continue to remember those needy families in the Greater Belfast area. Please leave your food donations in the shopping trolley in the foyer. Thank you for your continued support..

Today's reading was:

What did you hear God say to you?

What will you do as a response?

Interested in Flower arranging? Would you be prepared to help out in an emergency with flower arranging in our church? If anyone is interested please speak to Sally McKinstry or Revd Karen Spence after this morning's service. Thank You.

Church Barbeque On Friday evening (15 May), from 7pm until 9pm we are having an informal 'Meet the Neighbours' evening. This will take the form of a barbecue and tea/coffee with tray bakes and there will also be some games and other activities. It's not just for young people, but for all ages and there will be opportunity just to sit and have a chat over a tea or coffee.

Although many folk have volunteered to help, we still need more helpers – please pray that this will be a time of blessing and that God will prompt folk to attend. Also, if you are willing to help out that evening, Brian Maxwell will be at the Taylor Room at the close of the service so please give him your name and contact number. Also, could all helpers be at the church on Friday evening at 6.45pm.
